| Judge's Comments: Scott Brinton devoted an amazing amount of time and energy to investigate the effects of Freeport Plant No. 2's emissions on the health of the community it served. This well written and comprehensive coverage of the issues and controversy generated by efforts to close the facility was a public service to his readers, community and state. |                                       |                 |                       |

| Judge's Comments: A touching reminder that the victims of Sept. 11 were more than the horrific numbers repeatedly recited in the days immediately after the tragedy. They were relatives, friends, and neighbors who helped to make neighborhoods and communities special.                                                                                            |                                       |                 |                       |

AWARDS

- 1 Jerry's Ink Jerry Della Femina The East Hampton Independent
- 2 Compilation Inspiration Phyllis Lader The Smithtown News

W6 - Business/Econ./Financial

- 1 Series on Computer Associates' Proxy Battle Carl Corry Long Island Business News
- Judge's Comments:* Good insight into maneuverings of an attempted board takeover. Good continuing coverage.
- 2 Real Estate Series Susan Rosenbaum, Carissa Katz The East Hampton Star
- Judge's Comments:* Thorough explanation of residential market status.

W7 - Environment/Science/Tech.

- 1 Lyme Disease Controversy Jerry Cimisi Dan's Papers
- Judge's Comments:* This is a very interesting, well written article on Lyme Disease. The writer did a good job of pointing out how important the issue is to readers. He also carried through a good explanation of current controversies regarding treatment and the vaccine and how they are being addressed.
- 2 Toxic Plume Series Joanne Pilgrim The East Hampton Star
- Judge's Comments:* The reporter did an excellent job of following an important environmental topic through a long series of meetings, keeping readers informed about a crucial issue.
- 3 Montauk's Mean Seal Kitty Merrill The East Hampton Independent
- Judge's Comments:* Interesting writing and a lively style made this a good piece. The writer also provided lots of useful info about the seal that showed up in the area.

W8 - Arts

- 1 Arts Series (Profiles) Robert Long The East Hampton Star
- Judge's Comments:* Writer presents an eclectic blend of characters who would, at the least, be interesting dinner party companions. The exception might be the Brales - mother and daughter - but their story was fascinating. Strange by fascinating.

W9 - Sports

- 1 MLS' Ultimate Unsung Hero Michael LewisMLSnet.com
- Judge's Comments:* The profile of the soccer player who almost didn't make it to the pros was an easy and interesting read.
- 2 Long Island Rough Riders in Turmoil Michael LewisMLSnet.com
- Judge's Comments:* Story went beyond the obvious to explain how a once high-flying team lost its lustre.
- 3 Grab Some Pine: A View From the Dugout 2001 Robert Leuner Suffolk Life Newspapers
- Judge's Comments:* Young ballplayers who read this column dream of the day when someone reports on their experiences in the dugout. But the ending will be happier for them. That's the joy of dreams.

- 2 Now Or Never For Long Lane Fields Evan Tiska The East Hampton Independent

W12 - Editorial

- 1 Saving Roosevelt High Requires Courage Scott Brinton Merrick Herald

Judge's Comments: Good editorial because it does more than preach, it offers 10 solid suggestions for saving the school. Editorial is well written and a catchy lede. Good work.

- 2 Double Vote, Double Standard Virginia Garrison The East Hampton Star

Judge's Comments: Effective editorial that could have been too preachy, but was right on target. I'm sure the paper took some heat over the piece, but it certainly was well done, with solid arguments. Great ending!

- 3 From the Ashes Carolyn James Massapequa Post

Judge's Comments: Nice reflection on the importance of veterans, and American life, at a time when it was needed.

W13 - Review/Criticism

- 1 Give My Regards to Eighth Street Joe LeSueur The East Hampton Star

Judge's Comments: Writer shows extensive knowledge of subject. Good first person account. Detailed description, pictorial writing, in-depth analysis of subject.

- 2 The Global Village Rose C.S. Slivka The East Hampton Star

Judge's Comments: Pictorial writing. Writer shows strong knowledge of subject, informative critique.

- 3 Screen Teen / The Undergraduate Ben Kenigsberg The East Hampton Independent

Judge's Comments: Breezy writing. Shows good knowledge of subjects.

Magazine
